

PSYCHOLOGICAL FIRST AID

PIERCE COUNTY PREPAREDNESS ACADEMY and CITY OF GIG HARBOR

2017

People's reactions to crisis vary. Learn which reactions are harmful and how some are actually beneficial. Take away some important tools you can use to connect with affected people and provide immediate emotional support following an emergency.

Who is this class for

- Neighborhoods who are part of a Pierce County Neighborhood Emergency Team
- Emergency Management Volunteers: Shelter teams, EOC, HAM operators
- Residents who want to be able to assist family and those around them in time of emergencies and disaster.

Pierce County Preparedness Division 253-798-6595

"These classes are taught by seasoned Chaplain's from the Washington State Chaplain Corps. This has been one of our most successful courses-
